YESTERDAY'S FIRE ALABRE.—There were three alarms of fire yesterday. The first was sounded about 11 a. M., from the Sixth Ward, and originated from the burning of some loose boards at Hoffman's tamery. The boards were surrounded by a quantity of combustible material, which 'goiled from sparks blown from the smoke stack at the tennery. The damage was trifling, the fire being essally extinguished by means of the hose connected with the taneary.

"About 2 o'clock in the afternoon, about which time a heavy gale of wind swept over the city, another alarm was sounded from the Sixth Ward. A large crowd soon collected about Hoffman's tannery, which was reported to be burning. The alarm proved to be false, however, having doubtless originated from a shower of sparks from the smoke stack which was blown into the Riverside nail factory, and caused the employes to leave their work and rush to the street.

About half-past one o'clock in the afternoon the roof of the old window glass works, in North Wheeling, was discovered to be in a blaze. The flames were extinguished promptly by the Vigilant steamer, before much damage was done. The origin of the fire is uncertain, but it is thought that it was caused by flying with and Dust.—Yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock a heavy gale of wind swept over the city, carrying with it dense clouds of dust. For more than thirty minutes the hurricane prevailed, tearing shade trees from their rock, unroofing—buildings and almost throwing pedestrians from their feet. The dust was so thick that it was impossible to see half way across the street, and horses and time alike were nearly blinded by the force with which it was hurled in their faces. Although the storm raged with terrific force for over half an hour, but little damage was done. Many fine shade trees were hlown down, and syveral buildings unroofed, but the damage will be inconsiderable. The time-honored structure used as a bridge over the back river suffered slightly, about thirty feet of the ceiling over the footwalk being blown off. In the suburbs the cornifields were pretty generally flattened out, and doubtless the farmers will suffer some loss. 4th. That the gas main be extended on South Penn street, from its present terminity to the south end of the street; provided the property owners and tenants on the line of said extension agree to become consumers of gas as soon as practicable after the main is laid.

HOPEFUL Signs.—There are signs on toperul Sions.—There are signs on the streets different from the painted window signs that denote business places; yet these we now refer to indicate the coming back of business men to get rendy for the fall trade, which promises to be brisk and good. Sunburned faces appear among the pedestrians on the payements; shutters that have been closed one snough to become solvenbed are long enough to become cobwebbed are opening up to the light of day, avaunt couriers, in the form of trunks and packing cases, are being unloaded at some the beginning of July; and the household help that have been left in charge of resi-dences are quite busy "putting things to rights," so as to be ready for the family expected home in a few days. All these things betoken the waning of the "season," and the beginning of that renewed activi-

Marshal Hall to the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, who have been operating the line for a long while back. The sale was made by order of court, upon an execution issued by the heirs of Edward Fox, who have a judgment for $103,000 against the road, and was exposed to sale, a number of times before securing a purchaser. Mr. Wm. Keyser, Second Vice President of the B. & O. Railroad, bid $4,100, and the Marshal knocked it down to him for that amount. The B. & O. Company claim that the line will be utilized to shorten the road to Chicago 40 miles.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

SENT BACK TO JAIL.—Louis Biggs and David Oppenheimer, charged with cutting Jo. Robinson a few nights aince, were before Judge Cranmer yesterday morning, on a writ of habeas corpus. Messre, Jordan and Davenport appeared for the State, and Mr. Cracraft for the defense. After hearing the argument of counsel, His Honor decided that as there had been no preliminary hearing before a Justice, and as the delay had not been neither unnecessary or unreasonable, he had no right to interfere at this time. The prisoners were remanded to juli to await an examination before a Justice, which will be held as soon as Robinson, the prosecuting witness, is able to appear and testify.

"Among the many excellent bands that contributed toward filling the air with music the same night, none were more perfect in their musical skill than that of DR. E. A.
